WILL INTEREST YOU.

That Is—If You Intend to Visit the El Paso Fair.

"All railroads lead to El Paso," and they will all carry visitors to the fair, at special reduced rates during the entire time of its holding—November 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7—and will provide a sufficient number of excursion trains to accommodate the people from all sections of the Southwest. For particulars, consult local railroad officials and advertisements of the various railroads.

Exhibitors will pay full freight from point of shipment to El Paso, taking a shipping bill and receipt from the railway company. If the exhibits are regularly entered at the fair and do not change ownership, either by sale or otherwise, they will be returned to original point of shipment over the same road by which shipped, free of charge, provided a certificate from the secretary of the fair association is presented showing that the animals or articles have been on exhibition and have not changed ownership.

Shipments of fruit, grain and vegetables will be transported from points of shipment to El Paso at regular tariff rates, and freight charges refunded upon presentation of a certificate from the secretary of the fair association showing that such shipments have been on exhibition.

Bureau of Information.

A bureau of information will be maintained for the purpose of furnishing free information on all matters pertaining to the care, comfort, pleasure and business of visitors to the fair.

Check Stands.

Check stands will be provided on the grounds, so that packages, bundles and baggage, etc., may be deposited and stored at a nominal charge.

Telephone and Telegraph Offices. Both the Automatic and Bell Telephone Companies will have offices on the grounds and cater to the public service.

The Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies will also maintain offices on the grounds where messages will be forwarded and received.

SCENES IN EL PASO.

WE extend a cordial invitation to all our friends and patrons to make our store their headquarters during fair week

Pertinent Facts

The Jockey club, Juarez, S. A., is composed of some of the best citizens of the United States and Mexico. Its object is for the improvement of the breed of horses in the Republic of Mexico. Its president is Mr. Alberto Terrazas of Chihuahua; its vice president is Mr. J. G. Follinsbee of New York and Mexico; its secretary and treasurer, Mr. M. J. Winn of Louisville, Kentucky; and its racing secretary and handicapper, Mr. Lyman H. Davis of Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. Algernon Daingerfield, of New York, will be one of the judges, and Mars Casaday, of the New York Jockey Club will officiate as starter.

The race track will be one and one-eighth miles with a one-half mile chute and a mile chute with only two turns. The track will be 100 ft. wide. The grand stand will be 200 feet long. The betting pavilion and paddock will each be 150 feet long.

The jockey room will be on the second floor, fitted with toilet and shower baths. A club house and feed store will also be erected, making a structure from club house to feed store of 1,000 feet, capable of accommodating 10,000 persons. The company owns 200 acres.

The grounds are situated about one mile from the center of the city of Juarez, and two miles from the center of El Paso.

Numerous houses for horsemen are on the company's grounds. The grandstand and club house will be of tile roofing. Underneath the grand stand will be a bar, restaurant, telegraph office, news stand and barber shop.

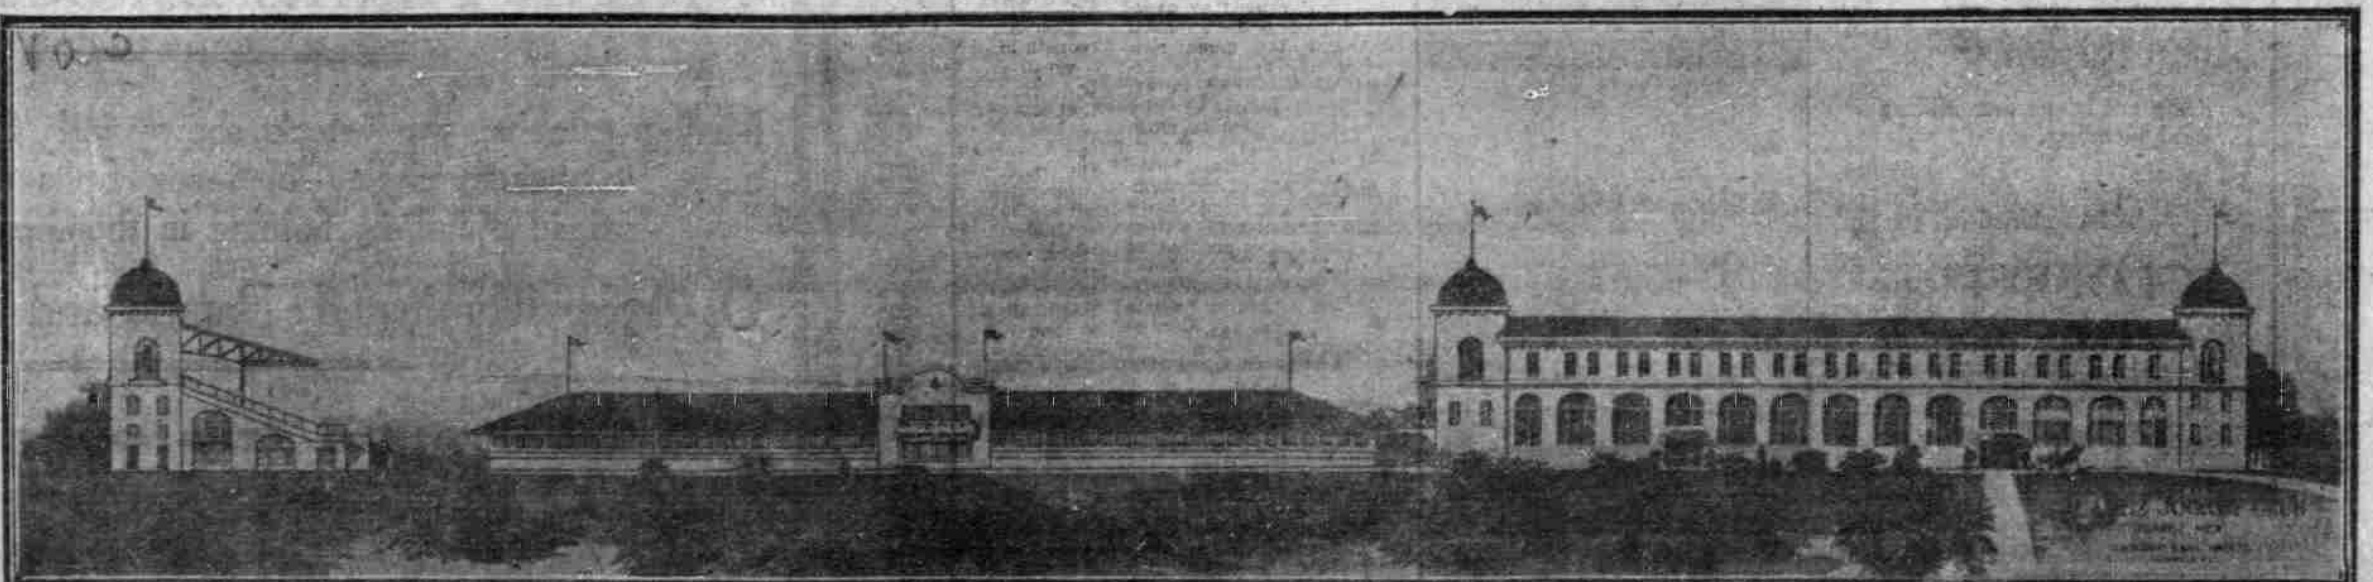

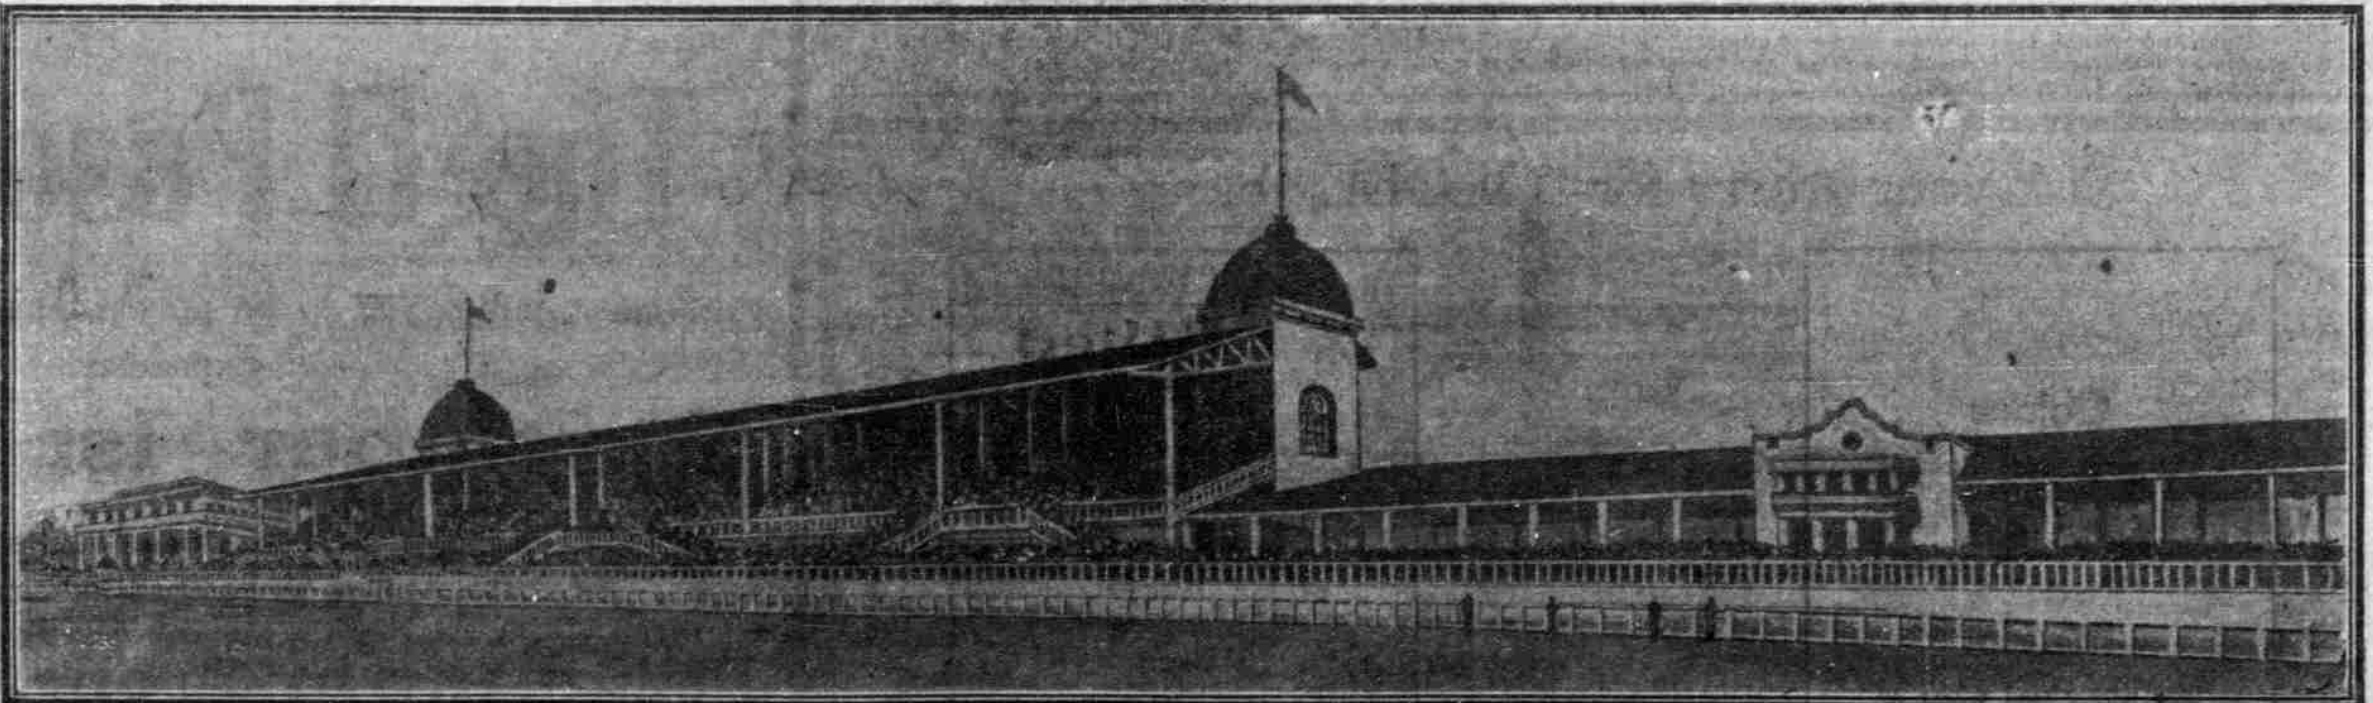

This will be the most complete and modernly equipped race track in the country. The opening will be on December 1st, with the Chihuahua handicap of 1,000 pesos ($2,000 gold). Numerous stakes will be run, varying from 1,000 to 5,000 pesos, including the El Paso handicap and Juarez derby.
